2018 Artists of the Mohawk Hudson Region

October 11 – December 8, 2018

The Regional

The 2018 Artists of the Mohawk Hudson Region Juried Exhibition will be held October 11 through December 8, 2018 at the University Art Museum, University at Albany. This annual exhibition is collaboratively sponsored by the University Art Museum, the Albany Institute of History & Art, and The Hyde Collection, Glens Falls.

Eligibility

The exhibition is open to artists residing within a 100-mile radius of the Capital Region. Works in all media that have been completed in the past 3 years are eligible. Works must be available for this exhibition. Works previously exhibited in Mohawk Hudson Regionals are not eligible.

Juror

Jean Shin has exhibited at more than 150 museums and cultural institutions, including solo exhibitions at the Museum of Modern Art, New York; the Fabric Workshop and Museum, Philadelphia; the Smithsonian American Art Museum, Washington, DC; and the Philadelphia Museum of Art. She recently completed a landmark commission, Elevated, for the New York City's new Second Avenue Subway.

Recognizing the concealed potential of everyday objects, Shin takes forgotten and discarded items and reinvigorates them through deconstruction and reassembly. Generating vast installations that comment on consumerism, hope, and transformation, she often solicits materials from the community in which the work is installed, creating compelling expressions of identity through social exchange.

On-line Submission Procedure

Submissions are limited to 5 works. Artists may submit up to 5 representative images of artwork in jpg format (10mb max), up to 3 video works (or excerpts) in mp4 format, totaling no more than 10 minutes in length, a brief artist statement (maximum 250 words), a resume, and entry fee. Installation artists may submit proposals and drawings in jpg or pdf format, keeping in mind the museum's space limitations (door widths, wall heights, etc.) and bear all installation costs. Call the museum to discuss limitations before submission of written proposals.
