

June 1-3, 2021

EVALUATING AND SUSTAINING PANDEMIC-INITIATED COURT-BASED INNOVATIONS

Beyond 2020: the next normal

COVID-19 + YOUTH

RESEARCH. POLICY. PRACTICE. ADVOCACY.

James Acker, Ph.D.

University at Albany School of Criminal Justice

James Acker is an Emeritus Distinguished Teaching Professor at the School of Criminal Justice, University at Albany. He earned his BA at Indiana University, a JD at Duke Law School, and a PhD in criminal justice at the University at Albany. His principal scholarly interests include criminal law, criminal procedure, capital punishment, and wrongful convictions. He has authored and edited several books and written numerous law review and social science articles relating to those issues.

A virtual forum hosted by the New York State Youth Justice Institute