

June 1-3, 2021

RACIAL AND ETHNIC DISPARITIES IN CHILD
SERVING SYSTEMS: HEALING

John Johnson

Office of Children and Family Services Division of Juvenile Justice and Opportunities for Youth (OCFS DJJOY)

John Johnson is the OCFS DJJOY Program Manager for STSJP and the DJJOY Office of Community Partnerships Performance Review Unit. John has 34 years of experience in the NYS Juvenile Justice system. He has held positions that have intersection with voluntary agencies, OCFS facilities, juvenile detention facilities, foster homes, group homes, and community-based supervision. John is also a key member of the Partnership for Youth Justice as a Technical Assistance and Coordination Team member. John is also an alum of the Annie E. Casey Juvenile Justice Strategy Group Applied Leadership Network.

A virtual forum hosted by the New York State Youth Justice Institute