

June 1-3, 2021

RACIAL AND ETHNIC DISPARITIES IN CHILD
SERVING SYSTEMS: HEALING

Teresa Scanu-Hansen

Office of Probation and Correctional Alternatives Division of Criminal Justice Services

Teresa Scanu-Hansen manages the juvenile probation operations unit within the Office of Probation and Correctional Alternatives (OPCA) at the NYS Division of Criminal Justice Services. Ms. Scanu-Hansen oversees a team responsible for ensuring regulatory compliance of the 58 NY probation departments, specifically juvenile and youth probation services. She works extensively on the multi-year implementation of NY's Raise the Age Law that began in 2018 and provides oversight and technical assistance to NY probation departments. She joined OPCA after 17 years as a probation officer within NY's juvenile and criminal probation fields.

Ms. Scanu-Hansen is a general topics instructor through the NYS Municipal Police Training Council, a trainer and facilitator in the National Institute of Corrections (NIC) Thinking for a Change (T4C) curriculum, and trainer and facilitator of the Change Companies' Interactive Journaling. She holds a bachelor's degree in Sociology from the State University of New York at Albany.

A virtual forum hosted by the New York State Youth Justice Institute